2025 UPCOMING EVENTS

January 4th, 2025 Thom Yeates Party at Yellow Rock Barn at 8307 Westridge Road, Raytown, MO. PDC has been invited to jam with the Alferd Packer Memorial String Band on Saturday, 1/4/25 from 6:00pm to 9:00pm. Come play or just listen. More information to follow.

Just a little information about the Alferd Packer Memorial String Band:

The Alferd Packer Memorial String Band is five multi-instrumentalists, dressed in old time costumes, singing and playing fiddles, banjo, guitars, mandolin, hammered dulcimer, accordion, bass, and creative percussion. The band has been featured on CBS Sunday Morning with Bill Geist, and in a documentary called "Overlooked" which aired on KTKA-TV. They were the focus of articles in the Wall Street Journal, New York Times and Readers' Digest. Their music has been used in a national broadcast on NPR. Their infectious good humor and high energy leave no toe untapped. Steve Mason; fiddle, guitar. Lauralyn Bodle; fiddle, guitar. Noah Musser; banjo, guitar. Matt Kirby; hammer dulcimer, percussion, button accordion. Mike Yoder; guitar, mandolin. All members sing and take a turn playing bass. All members have, individually, won a category in the Walnut Valley Festival New Songs Showcase. All but Noah have won a Phoenix award for arts achievement in Lawrence, Kansas.

BUSINESS MEETING: November 16, 2024

President Ken Shoemaker called the meeting to order at 10:15 am on Saturday, November 16, 2024.

Minutes:

The minutes from the August 17, 2024 meeting were read by Secretary Diane Crouch. Karron Smith moved to approve the minutes, and Ellen Marquardt seconded. Motion carried.

Treasurer:

Treasurer Ken Werne gave the treasurer's report for the past three months. Recent expenses were for web hosting, office and kitchen supplies. Income was from memberships and performances at Missouri Town and Liberty Fall Festival. The current balance is $5,112.32 with $466.15 reserved for the mentoring program. Memberships are due in January - individual $25 and family $40.

New Business:

President Ken discussed the upcoming Christmas Party at the December 21 club meeting and proposed to invite all of those on the email list. Ellen Marquardt moved to have the president invite former members and friends and the club will purchase the chicken for the party. Julie Goodman seconded; motion carried. Members need to bring side dishes and two dozen cookies for the cookie exchange. President Ken asked for all to help with set up and clean up at the meeting. Esther Creek will be invited and honored as our special guest. Members are encouraged to perform a solo or ensemble. President Ken welcomed the visitors to the meeting and recognized members with November birthdays.

President Ken discussed updating the by-laws and moving the club to a 501(c)3 charitable organization.

Ken and Ramona will be presenting information at a music educators conference in June 2025 for using dulcimers in schools for both Kansas and Missouri.

The KC-west jam group will have Christmas treats after the jam session on December 11 at the Johnson County Library. The outdoor jams will resume in the spring. Maryann Barlett announced that the Northland jam group will have a Christmas party at their house on December 30.

Brenda Smith and Ellen Marquardt gave an update on the recent performance by the John Knox group. They will be having a Christmas party on December 16, and they plan to perform at Lakeside Grill on December 20.

Dave Courtney reminded members that there are three hammered dulcimers to loan to new students. Several members have cardboard mountain dulcimers to loan out.

Upcoming Events:

Wednesday, December 4, 1:00 to 1:45 p.m. Crown Center Christmas performance, organized by Ken Shoemaker

Thursday, December 5, 10:00 a.m.: Performance at Parkview Nursing Home, organized by Rita Young.

Wednesday, December 11, 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m - Two 45 minute sets at the Northland Shepherd Center in Gladstone, organized by Diane Crouch.

Julie Goodman moved to adjourn the meeting, and Ellen Marquardt seconded. Motion carried.

Submitted by Diane Crouch, Secretary
